

Henry Brooks
Managing director, TEM Planning

Henry Brooks established TEM in 2012 to add value for property owners including the Tatton Estate. Henry leads a growing team that can advise on strategic, long-term asset management to help clients achieve their aims for current owners and generations yet unborn.

At TEM, Henry Brooks has been responsible for the identification and delivery of a wide range of projects including development such as 200 new homes in Knutsford; regeneration such as the new Hayhurst Arms in Bostock Green; agricultural business (contract farming and forestry); community work building on the family and Estate support of a huge range of organisations such as Knutsford Heritage Centre and Football Club; and new diversified activities such as minerals, water and energy.
