

Warren Marshall
Planning director, Peel Ports Group

Warren has worked for Peel Ports since 2007. As planning director, he is responsible for the promotion and consenting of port development projects, masterplanning, environmental impact assessment and stakeholder consultation. He is advisor to Peel Ports in terms of current and emerging Government planning, transportation and environmental policy and legislation affecting the business operations.

Prior to this Warren worked for five years in the housing and urban regeneration sector having been employed by Bellway and McInerney, responsible for the promotion of brownfield residential and mixed-use redevelopment schemes across the North West of England, with a particular focus within the HMRI Pathfinder Areas.

Warren has extensive Local Authority planning experience having been employed at Sefton, Trafford, and Warrington Councils across the spectrum of the town and country planning function.

For further information and to book tickets visit:

www.placenorthwest.co.uk/events/northern-transport-summit-rail-road-air-ports